Directions by Public Transportation

If you are traveling with very little baggage, the MBTA, otherwise known as the T, is Boston's public transit system. We are located just three blocks from the Coolidge Corner stop on the Green C Line, and we highly recommend using the T to explore the city instead of driving.

Directions from all major transit hubs are below.

From Logan Airport:

Board the Logan Express bus from any terminal. ($7.50, credit/debit card only)

Get off at the Hynes Convention Center or Copley Square stop.

Enter the subway station and board an outbound Green C train. Get off at Coolidge Corner.

When you exit the train, cross the tracks and Beacon Street to reach the Bank of America building on the corner. Continue in the same direction, up Harvard Street, past Bruegger's Bagels. When you reach Alton Place (there is a barbershop and a shoe repair on the corner), take a left. Take a left onto Littell Road. The Coolidge Corner Guest House is number 17.

From South Station: (Bus and Amtrak)

Take the Red Line outbound to Park Street Station.

Transfer to the Green Line, and take the C train towards Cleveland Circle. Get off above ground, at Coolidge Corner.
